

1953 - 2022

July 2022

Dear NCFRW Clubs:

The NCFRW will hold its biennial Tribute to Women banquet at the Fall Board of Directors Meeting on November 18th and 19th at the Richard Childress Racing Event Center in Welcome, N.C. The theme this year is “Carolina Classic Winners Circle.” This important event honors the outstanding women in our clubs for their contributions of time and talent, leadership, and inspiration to Republican Women and the Republican Party throughout the years. This honor expresses our gratitude for their hard work and dedication which will be even more special at this tribute on Friday evening.

Each club is encouraged to submit one member for this special recognition. Enclosed is the Honoree Submittal Form for the 2022 awards. The deadline to return the form is September 19, 2022. Please enclose a $125 check made payable to NCFRW Tribute to Women when returning the honorees form. The $125 will include dinner on Friday night for the honoree as well as help offset costs for the items of appreciation that she will receive during the awards ceremony.

Individuals, clubs, candidates, and other affiliate organizations will have the opportunity to sponsor the Tribute to Women banquet or purchase ads to express appreciation for the club honorees and the NCFRW. Enclosed is more information on how to have sponsorships and ads included in the program. Please share with those whom you think might be interested in participating. Gay Dillard, Central Region Vice President will be in charge of sponsorships and ads. Her email information is noted on the form for follow up or questions/call 336-407-0962.

This is truly a special honor. Please choose the most deserving volunteer in your club to become your 2022 honoree. We look forward to seeing everyone at this most exciting event in November.

If you have questions, please email kgallimoregop@yahoo.com call, or text 336-870-5880.

Sincerely,

Kelly Gallimore
