

From the desk of Kay Wildt, NCFRW President

Will there be a RED WAVE?

IF YOU GOTV = GET OUT THE VOTE!

Only If YOU make it happen.

Do not rest when the media says we're winning.

Do not be complacent! It is a numbers game.

You have the power to make a huge difference by having a conversation with your friends, neighbors, folks you meet at the gas pump and in the grocery store. Your encouragement urging others to vote Republican will mean more to our success than you know.

JUST DO IT!

A Reflection by Margeaux Holland, NCFRW Chaplain

Just as in the days of Noah... Just as in the days of Lot...

The people who lived in each era in history considered themselves thriving. No famine, no loss, there was marriage and being given in marriage, buying and selling. But in hindsight, they were not morally right in their social structure or personal hearts. This is what was important to God - and it still is what is important to Him.

The Nominating Committee will be elected during the Saturday morning, 11/19, business meeting. Please review our Bylaws below for requirements to serve.

- B. The Nominating Committee shall submit one nominee for each office in a report to be mailed to all members of the Board of Directors with the call to the Biennial Convention. The report shall be delivered to the President sixty (60) days prior to the convention, and the Nominating Committee is discharged after the presentation of its report at the convention.
- C. Nominees shall be members in good standing of the NCFRW.
- D. Nominations may be made from the floor following the report of the Nominating Committee. No one shall be nominated who has not previously consented to serve if elected.

Membership minute by Maureen Krueger

November tip: Growing your club

There are two main reasons that members give for joining our clubs and our federation:

1. They are personally fulfilled by the activities your club offers them.
2. They are proud to support what your club does, even if they are not personally involved.

We recommend creating events or situations that give your members and prospects a reason to join and participate (friendly meeting, good speakers, volunteer or outreach opportunities - like Caring for America or Armed Services, etc.) and communicate with them on a regular basis, possibly through a newsletter. If you have a FaceBook page, create posts they can "like," or feature projects sponsored by your club, etc.

Remember your passion and enthusiasm are contagious. Everyone wants to part of a winning team! The key: Consistent engagement!

Americanism and Veterans Day by Penny Jordan

On Veterans Day, November 11, we show our Americanism by honoring the brave, loyal and courageous women and men who died to keep us free. The observance, known originally as Armistice Day, began in 1919 on the first anniversary of the November 1918 armistice that ended World War I. A traditional observation is a moment of silence at 11am commemorating the cease-fire at "the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month," a time we can thank our soldiers for protecting our freedoms.

Club news

NCFRW's State Scarf

NCFRW has designed a beautiful 100% silk scarf featuring our seal in the center and edged with a graceful blue scroll interspersed with delicate blossoms of dogwood, our state flower.

Each corner of the scarf has a significant North Carolina symbol: the state of North Carolina flag map; the Longleaf Pine (Pinus Palustris); Kitty Hawk, the Wright Brothers' Flyer; the Cape Hatteras Lighthouse.

Scarves will be for sale at the November Board meeting, just in time for the holidays! More information about purchasing these beautiful scarves and delivery date will be available shortly.

Forsyth Co. RW

For 10 days, more than 30 volunteers from the Forsyth Co RW and FCGOP worked at the Carolina Classic Fair in Winston-Salem to represent the GOP and to change addresses or party affiliation for over 30 voters, some of them Dems.

Dale Folwell, best ever NC State Treasurer, and part of the reason that FORBES ranks NC as 1st in the USA for business, joined us, as well as Rep. Virginia Foxx, (NC-5).

Rockingham Co RW

NCFRW President Kay Wildt was delighted to speak about NFRW/NCFRW history and the differences between Republicans and Democrats at President Bonnie Joyner's October luncheon meeting. Norma Kelly, noted for her skills and generosity at making more than 280 lap blankets for veterans, presented Kay with one of her own absolutely beautiful creations. Easy to see why Norma is Rockingham Co RW's honoree for the 2022 Tribute to Women.

In addition, Kay spoke about our rights as citizens to push back against the overreach of the Federal Government when it promulgates, in the Federal Register, Rules and Regulations that are harmful to American families and that destroy our culture and our economy. So when you receive an Alert, please respond and make your views known. It is your right and, like voting, affects all of our lives.

In memoriam: Dr. Ada M. Fisher

NCFRW members send our deepest condolences to the family and to all who cherish the memory of Dr. Ada Markita Fisher (1947-2022), retired physician and former North Carolina Republican National Committeewoman (2012-2020).

Dr. Fisher was a major influence in the North Carolina Federation of Republican Women where her wisdom and commitment to conservative values guide us today. An early supporter of President Donald J. Trump, Dr. Fisher was a strong advocate for diversity in the GOP.

Dr. Fisher earned her medical degree from the University of Wisconsin and an MPH from John Hopkins. Her accomplishments are legend.

In addition to her many talents, Dr. Fisher wrote beautifully, and we are sharing the last piece she wrote on the death of another talented and incredible woman.
